

Morpeth Clock Tower Tours and Bell Ringing Experience

Oldgate, Morpeth,
NE61 1QF

This is an unusual clock tower as it is not part of a church. The bells ring to celebrate civic events such as the Mayor-Making. Steep stairs outside and inside. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

Saturday 19th 10am - 3.30pm

Morpeth Masonic Lodge

Winton House, Dacre Street,
NE61 1HW

A Victorian House in the heart of Morpeth, once owned by the father of Emily Wilding Davison, which is now home to Morpeth Masonic Lodge.

Saturday 19th 10am - 1pm

Morpeth's Town Treasures

Morpeth Town Hall, Market
Place, Morpeth,
NE61 1LZ

A rare chance to view the Mayor's Parlour, Council Chamber, the civic silver and other historic items. The Mayor and councillors will be your guides for the day

Friday 18th 10am - 12 noon

Saturday 19th 2.30 - 4.30pm

Morpeth Poetry Group

The Chantry, Morpeth,
NE61 1PD

Morpeth Poetry Group, in role and costume, will explore Morpeth's history through its people and buildings.

Saturday 19th 10.30am - 12 noon

The Northumbrian Pipers' Society will be playing at the Chantry from 2pm-4.30pm. Come and see Northumberland's very own musical instrument being played.

Manchester Street Hall (Boys Brigade Hall)

Manchester Street, Morpeth, NE61 1BH

Originally a Wesleyan Chapel built 1884, it is now being refurbished to create a youth centre.

Currently there is no disability access.

Saturday 19th 10am - 4pm

Images courtesy of Morpeth Antiquarian Society.

Historical Walking Tour of Morpeth

The Chantry, Morpeth,
NE61 1PD

Explore the historic market town of Morpeth with passionate Northumbrian James Boyd.

James will share his knowledge of the history of Morpeth including significant buildings and notable people. Duration approx. 2 hrs.

Pre-booking required: link on the website:

www.heritageopendays.org.uk

Sunday 20th 10am - 12 noon

Four* Anniversaries and a Funeral (* at least!)

Corn Exchange, Town Hall,
Market Place, Morpeth,
NE61 1LZ

An exhibition of pictures, documents, artefacts and community memories by the Morpeth Antiquarian Society, in its 80th year. Book stall and refreshments available.

Friday 18th 10am - 5pm

Saturday 19th 10am - 5pm

Morpeth History Walk

The Chantry, Morpeth,
NE61 1PD

A gentle stroll with a born and bred Morpethian, covering significant landmarks and history around the Chantry and Castle Square area.

Duration approx. 1 hour 15 mins.

Pre-booking required: link on the website:

www.heritageopendays.org.uk

Or email:

barbara.waldie@gmail.com

Friday 18th 10am - 11.15am

Collingwood Society Lecture 'Nelson and Collingwood'

The professional and personal relationships between the Admirals and friends.

Morpeth Methodist Church,
Howard Terrace, Morpeth
NE61 1HU

Thursday 17th 7.30pm

King Edward VI school

KEVI Youth Centre – Lower
school grounds,
NE61 1DN

Stories about the school and students from over the years. Refreshments will be available.

Saturday 19th 10:30 – 2:30pm

St Andrew's Church, Bothal
Bothal Village, Morpeth,
NE61 6SL

Beautiful Medieval Church in Bothal village.

Saturday 19th 11am - 3pm

Sunday 20th 11am - 3pm

St Mary Magdalene, Mitford
Stable Green, Mitford,
NE61 3PZ

Historic 12th century church with interesting stained glass in a beautiful setting overlooking remains of Mitford Castle.

Thursday 17th to Sunday 20th
10am - 3pm

St George's United Reformed Church, Morpeth

Bridge Street, Morpeth,
NE61 1PD

This lovely Victorian church, built on the site of the manorial mill, has stood at the end of the Telford Bridge since 1860.

Friday 18th 10am - 3pm

Coffee morning 10am - 12 noon

St Mary the Virgin, Morpeth
St Mary's Field, Morpeth,
NE61 2QT

Discover one of the best medieval churches in Northumberland with a 14th Century Jesse Window.

Friday 18th 10am - 4pm

Saturday 19th 1.30pm - 4pm

Sunday 20th 12 noon - 4pm

St Robert of Newminster, Morpeth

Oldgate, Morpeth,
NE61 1QF

A beautiful Victorian church near the banks of the river Wansbeck.

Thursday 17th to Saturday 19th
10.30am - 4pm

St James the Great, Morpeth

St James' Terrace, Morpeth,
NE61 1BP

Impressive Victorian Romanesque Church, after the style of the cathedral at Monreale in Sicily, with fine wall paintings.

Thursday 17th to Sunday 20th
10am - 3pm

Every September thousands of volunteers across England organise events to celebrate our fantastic history and culture, all of which are FREE to explore. Established in 1994, Heritage Open Days has since grown into the country's largest community heritage festival. Morpeth Heritage Open Days Festival is co-ordinated by the Greater Morpeth Development Trust www.gmdt.net

Greater Morpeth
Development Trust
Regeneration of town & countryside

heritage open days

MORPETH 2026
FREE HERITAGE EVENTS
17th– 20th September

Find out more:

#HODs

www.heritageopendays.org.uk